84TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 11356

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 27, 1956

Ordered to lie on the table and to be printed

AMENDMENT

Intended to be proposed by Mr. O'MAHONEY to the bill (H. R. 11356) to amend further the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, and for other purposes, viz: Beginning with line 10 on page 25, strike out over through line 3 on page 26 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

1 SEC. 2. STATEMENT OF POLICY.—(a) The Congress
2 of the United States recognizes that the peace of the world
3 and the security of the United States are endangered as long
4 as international communism and the nations it controls con-
5 tinue by threat of military action, by the continuous develop-
6 ment of airpower and the construction of nuclear weapons,
7 and by the use of economic pressure, internal subversion, or 8 other means, to attempt to bring under their domination

2

1 peoples now free and independent, and continue to deny the 2 rights of freedom and self-government to peoples and nations
3 once free but now subject to such domination. The Con-
4 gress therefore declares it to be the policy of the United 5 States to continue, as long as such danger persists, (1) to 6 expand its own airpower through the construction, in ac-
7 cordance with appropriations heretofore or hereafter made
8 by the Congress, of planes, guided missiles, and other ad-
9 vanced weapons, so as to be prepared at all times to resist
10 any attack by Communist power, and (2) to make available 11 to free nations and peoples upon request assistance of such 12 nature and in such amounts as the United States deems 13 advisable compatible with its own stability, strength, and 14 other obligations, and as may be needed and effectively used 15 by such free nations and peoples to help them maintain their 16 freedom.
